

Retroactive English 9 Honors Credit:

While all students enter 9th grade English in non-honors classes, they have the ability to retroactively earn English 9 honors credit by the end of the school year. Determination is made with a point-based system, using results from the following: best STAR Reading score, and overall 4- quarter semester English average. Guidelines will be discussed with your child. Please contact me if you would like additional information.