

Retroactive English 9 Honors Credit: While all students enter 9th grade English in non-honors classes, they have the ability to retroactively earn English 9 honors credit by the end of the school year. Determination is made with a point-based system, using results from the following: best STAR Reading score, overall 4-quarter English average, comprehension and writing assessments. Guidelines will be provided to your child. Please contact me if you would like additional information.
